Call for Papers and Workshops

<http://www.bellua.com/bcs2005/asia05.cfp.html>

From 21st – 24th March the largest information security conference in Asia will take place in Jakarta, Indonesia at the Hotel Borobudur.

* 21–22 March 2005: Workshops

* 23–24 March 2005: Conference

Bellua will bring together over 20 researchers and practitioners from numerous disciplines to discuss present and future information security issues through an intensive series of workshops, presentations, technical sessions and demonstrations.

The partial list of speakers include Ralph Logan, Adam O'Donnel, David Maynor [ISS X–Force], The Grugq, Jim Geovedi [HERT], Petri Miftach and John Grygorcewicz.

Over 30 workshops will be offered and taught by the most respected experts in the field.

Ethical hacking & security contests will let novices develop their skills and challenge experts in their favorite arenas, allowing all a chance to win prizes.

The program committee invites proposals for paper presentations, demonstrations and poster contributions on any topic relevant to cyber security and hacking.

The conference talks will be spread across 2 concurrent tracks focusing on both business and technical aspects of information security.
