Well, unfortunately I must cancel this year's NTBugtraq Retreat. I have only received 10 confirmations that people we're coming, and that simply isn't enough to make the event worthwhile to everyone. It was great fun while we had them, and something I believe benefited those that came, but it seems to be an idea which has lost its luster. I'm not sure if I'll try and arrange another for next year or not. As for Europe, that's unlikely.

Kim and I will really miss meeting you all each year. Maybe we'll cross paths down the road. 5 years isn't a bad run I guess for a conference of this type.

To those of you who attended over the years, thanks!

Cheers,

Russ – NTBugtraq Editor – Asta la vista Russ-a-palooza
