Ahh. So thats a no, I don't know of any other way of getting into the box if it won't allow a login. Thanks for clearing that up.

Your response to Julie was funny as hell, especially since the user already said he couldn't login, whats Julie suggest? try safe mode. HAHA, nitwit; You have to login on safe mode too!

That's amusing, however, KM has made a fine fool of himself already, isn't he your leader? Didn't know ghost9 could read drive image files... What an idiot. He's clearly incompetent. Perhaps the motorcycle wreck did more then take his penis.
