

Re: can't share files on WinXP Pro

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/comp.os.ms-windows.nt.admin.security/2002-04/0105.html>

---

From: chris@nospam.com

Date: 04/17/02

From: chris@nospam.com

Date: Tue, 16 Apr 2002 22:34:28 -0700

On Mon, 8 Apr 2002 10:13:26 +1000, "KlausF" <Sorry@TooMuch.Junk.net> wrote:

>Under WinNT and Win2000 the error message
>"Not enough server storage is available to process this command" >indicated the the machine needed a service pack upgrade.

Or more precisely, that the user installed stuff from the CD and did not reapply the last service pack.

---

- Next message: marc: "Re: Permissions change on C:\"
- Previous message: chris@nospam.com: "Re: permission setting help !!!"
- In reply to: KlausF: "Re: can't share files on WinXP Pro"
- Next in thread: Henry Leparskas: "Re: can't share files on WinXP Pro"
- Messages sorted by: [\[ date \] \[ thread \] \[ subject \] \[ author \] \[ attachment \]](#)