

Re: Problems connecting to ssh cvs server using Putty on Win2k

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/comp.security.ssh/2002-11/0366.html>

---

From: Grégoire Weber (gregweb-NOSPAM@i-con.ch)

Date: 11/27/02

Date: Wed, 27 Nov 2002 23:09:39 +0100

From: Grégoire Weber <gregweb-NOSPAM@i-con.ch>

Sorry, the double post. I thought I lost the first message :-)

Grégoire Weber wrote:

- > Hi all!
- >
- > I'm trying to connect to zope's cvs server. I am doing this
- > with Putty 0.52.
- >
- > Testing the SSH tunnel (it's a tunnel, isn't it?) by hand
- > doesn't work as expected.
- >
- > What I've done so far:
- >
- > 1. generated private/public SSH2 RSA key pair using
- > puttygen
- >
- > 2. posted the public key to the CVS server. People
- > at zope corp. said that they have received the key
- > and that I should now be able to connect.
- >
- > 3. Pageant is running on my system with the key loaded.
- >
- > 4. When connecting to the server by:
- >
- > plink gregweb@cvs.zope.org echo "dummy text"
- >
- > I get a password prompt:
- >
- > gregweb@cvs.zope.org's password:
- >
- > This should not be as I and zope people understand.
- >
- > 5. Env. vars set (for wincvs as I understand):
- >
- > HOME=e:\user\greg\data\zope3-dev

comp.security.ssh: Re: Problems connecting to ssh cvs server using Putty on Win2k

> CVS_SSH=d:\program files\putty\plink.exe
>
> PATH has d:\program files\putty in there.
>
> I'm stuck, so help is appreciated. Thanks.
>
> Greg
>