

Check Point VPN-1 SecureClient / SecureRemote Product updates

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/comp.security.ssh/2003-02/0312.html>

From: gorgale (benny@opswat.com)

Date: 02/25/03

From: benny@opswat.com (gorgale)

Date: 25 Feb 2003 14:34:30 -0800

As you must know the most significant security threat associated to your VPN setup is the individual teleworker with the ability to connect to the corporate office via the VPN client.

OPSTOP for Norton Antivirus <http://www.opswat.com/opstop_nav.html> exclusive Cooperative Enforcement technology further hardens network security by cooperating with Norton Anti Virus and Check Point Secure Client VPN solutions to ensure only trusted PCs access the corporate network..

Product Features:

- Enforcing the following Norton Anti Virus settings on your VPN clients
 - o Norton Anti Virus File System Real Time Protection
 - o Norton Anti Virus definition file is up to date
 - o Norton Anti Virus product is up to date
- Centralized management of Norton Anti Virus live updates

OPSTOP for Hardware Identity <http://www.opswat.com/opstop_hardware.html> protects your corporation against unwanted hardware access by binding SecureClient / SecureRemote to your corporations' hardware and authenticating each hardware access to your corporate network.

Product Features:

- State of the art complete hardware identification
- One time key encryption
- Unique identification for every system

OPSWAT products have been developed by Check Point Certification Engineers and are recommended by Check Point, call us for details or go to our web page at <<http://www.opswat.com>>

For more information regarding these products feel free to contact me at:

Sergio Arizpe

OPSWAT Inc.

953 Mission St Suite 200

San Francisco, CA

comp.security.ssh: Check Point VPN-1 SecureClient / SecureRemote Product updates

94103-2974

Phone: 415-247-0202

Fax: 415-247-7603

sergio@opswat.com <<mailto:sergio@opswat.com>>

<<http://www.opswat.com>>