

comp.security.ssh: Re: ppp vpn through ssh

Re: ppp vpn through ssh

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/comp.security.ssh/2003-12/0167.html>

---

From: all mail refused (elvis\_at\_notatla.org.uk)

Date: 12/20/03

Date: 20 Dec 2003 21:09:13 GMT

In article <bs2cnf$8uo6m$1@ID-11401.news.uni-berlin.de>, Filip Lyncker wrote:

*>thanks but i allready have my experiences with pptp , it is pretty insecure
>but the main problem is, that it is not that easy to route throgh routers >and firewalls. its never a problem to route a port like 22 ( and if not i >change it to 80 ) , so its much more interessting to use the ppp through ssh >possibility !*

If you're doing TCP over that ppp then you've got TCP over TCP which I am assured sucks horribly because they will apply timeouts in ways that don't make sense.

--

Elvis Notargiacomo

<http://www.sendacow.org.uk/homepage.html>