

Installing downloaded security updates

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/microsoft.public.security/2003-03/1897.html>

---

From: Suzytoes (callahan@bendnet.com)

Date: 03/22/03

From: "Suzytoes" <callahan@bendnet.com>

Date: Sat, 22 Mar 2003 07:55:27 -0800

After all update files for Windows98 successfully downloaded from the Microsoft website, upon installing a message came up: to load "default file from disk", I clicked OK (although I do not know where this file is on what disk, apparently the install program could not find it on my hard drive) things locked up and then finally a message came up saying "asycficy.dll on default cannot be found" Consequently some files were not successfully installed. Can anyone help with this?