The problem here is it doesn't matter how many times the pc is reformatted to clear virus' and trojan horses and anything else its just a matter of a week or two at the most when the first signs of bad news starts to come back.I've seen it for so long I know exactly the first sign. E.G.I see a different home page like instead of msn or yahoo there is something called "Blaze," as a homne page or it was at one time "Freeze," I mean this has gone on for 3 years now. I had one period when my girlfriend did not use the computer and I had a relatively smooth 2 months. I hate to point the finger but she is the only other person who is on the pc and she is a bit secretive. If fact as long as I've known her she has led a very strange existence. I don't know what it is about her but she always knows what I've done on the computer. There are files that can't be deleted and then just last night I printed out these logs which indicate there is some nefarious goins on. Here is some of the log:<http://downloads.180solutions.com/keywords/kyf.247.gz> to c:documents and settings\etc. (which is the file that has been the subject of their interest--it seems everything starts with documents and settings)"new log session started 04/28/2004 11:32:09 (process id 180 started-version:5.5.11 .\source\ncase.cpp 119 00000000 found existing search assistant precess--shutting it down stopping timer thread .\source\CMainWnd.cpp 49 5.5 378 decompressing download data decompressed and wrote it to disk download attempt successful loading keywords from file entering the add keyword thread not downloading bomering--using latest version leaving the add keyword thread .\source\cdictionaryMgr.cpp 196 stopping ad thread attempting to close ad window destroying ad window waiting for BrowserMonitor treads to exit killing debug window this is just part of a page IS THIS IN THE HARD DRIVE OR IS THIS PC WHICH WAS SUPPOSEDLY A GIFT TO GUESS WHO MY SIGNIFICANT OTHER RIGGED TO JUST TURN OVER INFO? IF ANYONE CAN SHED LIGHT ON THIS MOST MYSTERIOUS SITUATION I WOULD BE ETERNALLY GRATEFUL. BAFFELED
