

Re: Access Network Resources On Untrusted Domains

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/microsoft.public.security/2004-10/0731.html>

---

From: Phillip Windell (_at_)

Date: 10/13/04

Date: Wed, 13 Oct 2004 08:48:00 -0500

"Hardmandez" <Hardmandez@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:14D5FBC3-2EDF-4AC2-B960-1C8AABA4BDDF@microsoft.com...

> It accesses it using the UNC path that it gets from a registry setting.

>

> Problem is it needs to be a solution that is not going to cause a prompt for > a username and password for the local box or the box's domain.

What account does the "process" happen under? Whatever it is, you need to create an identical *local* account on the Web Server (same name /password). If that doesn't work then they'd better design their App better.

--

Phillip Windell [MCP, MVP, CCNA]
www.wandtv.com