

Re: SA password change?

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/microsoft.public.sqlserver.security/2002-06/0544.html>

---

From: Luis F Rivera G (riveralf@hotmail.com)

Date: 06/05/02

From: "Luis F Rivera G" <riveralf@hotmail.com>

Date: Wed, 5 Jun 2002 10:30:13 -0700

Thanks Sue... Great Tip!!!

Luis F Rivera G

>-----Original Message-----

>You have to generate a new dtsrun encrypted command. If you >are on SQL Server 2000, you can use the dtsrunui utility.

>>From the advanced button on the dtsrunui utility, there is >an option to generate a command line. You'd need to use sa >and the password for the login info in the utility. It >encrypts the /U <username> and /P <password> for the login >and password of the package.

>If you are on SQL Server 7, You can do a dtsrun from the >command line with the user, password, package name etc. -

>dtsrun /S Server /U user /P password /N Package,

>At the end, include the arguments /!X /!Y /!C

>The package won't execute, it will generate the encrypted >command line and will copy the encrypted command to the >clipboard for you to paste into a job. Strip off the ending

>/!X /!Y /!C and that's the encrypted line you need.

>

>-Sue

>

>On Wed, 5 Jun 2002 08:41:30 -0700, "Luis F Rivera G"

><riveralf@hotmail.com> wrote:

>

>>Sue, excuse me. How can I change the sa password

encrypted

>>in the DTS.

>>

>>

>>>-----Original Message-----

>>>If you have any applications referencing the sa account, microsoft.public.sqlserver.security: Re: SA password change?

>>>they will have problems but they should probably be >>changed
>>>to use an account other than sa.
>>>If you have any DTS packages that were scheduled through >>the >>>schedule package option of the package by a user who had >>>Enterprise Manager registered with the sa account, those >>>will have the sa password encrypted in the dtsrun command
>>>and will need to be changed.
>>>
>>>-Sue
>>>
>>>On Fri, 31 May 2002 08:54:31 -0700, "Termy" >>><termyterm@yahoo.com> wrote:
>>>
>>>>I am jr DBA for a small company. We need to change the >>SA
>>>>password. What pre tasks should be completed prior to >>this >>>>change and how should this (the change)be done? Your >>>>answer may save a job!
>>>
>>>.
>>>
>
>.
>