

Re: Changing Password

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/microsoft.public.windows.server.security/2004-02/0030.html>

---

From: Tim Sanderson (trsandersonii_at_hotmail.com)

Date: 02/04/04

Date: Tue, 3 Feb 2004 18:34:04 -0500

Use a third party product to sync the passwords when it is changed.

better yet, don't use the local administrator account to start services in a domain environment. Create an permission/privelage equivalent user account in the domain and change the service used credentials to match the domain account created. Changing the account password then is easy and can affect all services using the domain account.