I am surprised that with all the problems you are experiencing, your machine has not burst into flames and stopped the Blaster Worm.

"Can o&o, QBS software, disk defrag be purchased from united state retailer?
thanks"

"when i go on the inter net the computer tells me that it is shutting down in so many seconds and i have control over it.this happens after about five minutes. can any one help"

"After selecting a User on XP-Home, an error message appears which states:

Memory access violation in module kernel 32 at 8175:22294851.

Any idea what this means and how to make it stop appearing?"

"This is what happened... I was trying to re-install Windows XP Pro. Well after that got going.. this is what showed up.

"system is being restarted...." then,

"STOP: c000021a {Fatal System Error} The Windows Logon Process system process terminated unexpectedly with a status of 0xc0000034 (0x00000000 0x00000000).
The system has been shut down"
