| The problem is....when I start my computer and it gets to the desktop page,
| my set wallpaper flickers between black, White, and a page stating that I
| have spyware on my computer. Attempts to open any programs fail....and a
| bureau window opens to say something like:

| Internet Explorer can not find HTML which is nessasary to run active
| desktop.

| If you want to cancel active desktop click OK!!

| When I click "OK" Nothing happens.....and all the while the computer is
| running feverishly!!!!

| I'm completly lost.....any info would help a great deal!

| Thanks,
