That's just a redirect link ... i.e. it goes through MS servers but does not contain a URL. Was it this convoluted fix ?:

How to resolve problems that occur with the JET component and with the MDAC component
<http://support.microsoft.com/kb/870630>

The DCOM errors may be a result of misconfigured services or a firewall. Please go to Start > Run > type in %windir%\windowsupdate.log

Post the last 40 or so lines of the log.
