Tis a sporgery, a kind of manufactured nonsense. Look up "HipCrime" on Google and read <http://bernie.cncfamily.com/sporg.htm>.

Alternatively, we can classify this particular specimen as a viral jumping meme.

This "text" infects the susceptible readers with the idea that this "text" must be a steganographic or coded message. The infected reader feels compelled to copy the "text" to other newsgroups or to circulate it through his social circles.
