If they make it PPV then they will have to pay me royalties.

ALL text remains copyright.

Whether explicitly stated or not.

Out of context quoting, altered display, and changing of header lines is explicitly forbidden, as is falsifying the origin / author / date/ destination / and references lines.

I have:

Searched all groups Results 1 – 10 of 13,400 for panteltje (0.33 seconds)

By publishing this, Google (Deja news) agrees all postings made by Jan Panteltje are protected by copyright, and that in case google or any of its devisions, companies, or representatives asks money to access these postings in its archive, Jan Panteltje will be payed 25 Euro cent for every access to this work.

Now what.

I can put my own archive on line too in a minute or 2.

Let's see what happens now (nothing).
