hello

thank u very much for helping me with patience... actually i ve included the appropriate header file.. i m using vc++ and i ve put all the ".h" files in the include folder in the vc++ directory as per the instructions.. but i m still getting the "unresolved symbol error". i ve been trying to solve this problem for the past 10 days... i read in many forums that many people are facing this problem...i m using windows XP... i m actually new to openssl.. so it wud be gr8 if someone solves my problem..

chitra
