"Hey, I published this, I published that,
$60. But I am not spamming since I am not giving links." The only fact you come to talk about your books whereas nobody asked you anything is already spamming. (But, as someone recently pointed it, you have rights others have not: you are a public service.)

Lighten up, mm. When you've contributed as much to this community as Tom has, I'll be happy to read your book announcements here, too.

Which contributions are you talking of? His "First, fuck off"? His "Shut up little prick"? His attacks against people like Bernstein or Schneier? What else? His library? But I know a lot of C libraries written by people who have a math level superior to the one of a dozen of oysters.

Now, whether you like his library or not, that's your right and,
overall, that's not my problem.

You were the one bitching.

Hey wait – you are still the one bitching

So?

TSD is a guy who is able to write whereas two days before he came to play "Cybercop strikes again" with MOMNOUGUI (to cite one of his most recent contributions). He could simply put him in his killfile without replying him, no? So why he didn't do that? As usual, the rule is good for the others but not for him?

Btw, what do you think about the way he insulted Schneier a few weeks ago (to cite an other of his contributions)? I didn't see you trying to defend Schneier like you are trying to defend TSD now.

Note that I do not contest your right to do so. I am not even surprised that someone comes to defend TSD. In a world where the Spice Girls succeed in selling CD's, it is clear that even TSD can have a fan club.
