Well, Reagan didn't like a peaceful Texas based group called CISPES, which was against the United States' support of the El Salvador government.

The El Salvador government was torturing and killing people.

- * One of those arrested was accused of killing the head of the Salvadoran Land Reform Institute and two AMERICAN agrarian advisors.

So the FBI had one of their agents infiltrate CISPES using a Frank Varelli, who was born in San Salvador and served in the U.S. Army.

- #
- # Varelli met with the Salvadoran National Guard, best known for its death squads. They gave him a "hit list" of people they wanted.
- #
- # When the INS stopped a Salvadoran immigrant, it would call the FBI and check the name against the list.
- #
- # If the detained person's name was on the list, the INS would institute deportation proceedings, opposing bail on "national security" grounds.
- #
- # Varelli would call the Salvadoran National Guard to let them know the individual was on his way home. In this way, the FBI assisted, over a three-year period, the work of the Salvadoran death squads.

That's right: the FBI murders people.
