

For Ramzi the expansion's early, about me it's moral, whereas after you it's frightening strong.

For Ramzi the expansion's early, about me it's moral, whereas after you it's frightening strong.

Source: <http://www.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/sci.crypt/2008-04/msg11307.html>

- From: Lakhdar UL-Ramman <shed@xxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Tue, 22 Apr 2008 03:46:56 GMT
-

allow the use of helicopters from the Texas National Guard at Waco. Texas law forbids the use of the National Guard in police action against a citizen of the state, except when drugs are involved in a criminal action.

But the A.T.F. fabricated a drug charge ("ugh, they're operating a methamphetamine lab or something huh-huh-huh") to gain the use of the helicopters. Later, Governor Richards stated publicly that she had been lied to by the Department of Justice.

o They knew the secrecy of the operation had been blown. How macho to plow ahead anyway. They must feel invincible in those stormtrooper outfits.

Here is the fifty-percent reason.

A little technical quibble.

Reckless disregard for human life, leading to a disaster.

The following descriptions are entirely from Janet Reno's own testimony, along with other Federal agents and neutral expert testimony.

The approximate date was 6/27/95, on C-SPAN, "Justice Department Oversight, Senate Judiciary Committee". Senator Arlene Specter presiding.

Ms. Reno testified that the turning point in her decision to forcibly move against the Waco compound came after she had "discussions" with senior gove